NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO CERTIFY CLASS ACTION AND APPOINT CLASS COUNSEL

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT at October 29, 2018 at 9 a.m.,<sup>1</sup> or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, before the Honorable Jesus G. Bernal in Courtroom 1 of the above-entitled Court located at 3470 Twelfth Street Riverside, California, Plaintiffs Jacob T., J.F. and Andrew M. (together, “Plaintiffs”) will and hereby do move for an order (1) certifying a class of plaintiffs as defined herein, (2) appointing Jacob T., J.F. and Andrew M. as class representatives and (3) appointing Plaintiffs’ counsel as class counsel.

Plaintiffs move to certify the class on the grounds that the requirements of Rule 23(a) and 23(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure have been satisfied. Rule 23(a) is satisfied because the putative class is so numerous as to render impractical any joinder of the members of the class; there are various factual and legal issues that are common to the members of the proposed class; Jacob T.’s, J.F.’s and Andrew M.’s claims are typical of the class claims; and Jacob. T, J.F. and Andrew M. and their counsel are qualified and prepared to fulfill their role and duty to present the interests of the members of the proposed class. Rule 23(b)(2) is satisfied because Plaintiffs allege conduct by Defendants County of Riverside, Mark Hake and Bryce Hulstrom (together, “Defendants”) that is generally applicable to the class, and they seek declaratory and injunctive relief for the class.

This motion is unopposed, and is accompanied by a stipulation with Defendants’ counsel, agreeing that (1) the class should be certified, (2) Jacob T., J.F. and Andrew M. should be appointed as class representatives and (3) Plaintiffs’ counsel should be appointed as class counsel.

<sup>1</sup> Plaintiffs have set a hearing date to comply with Local Rule 7-4, but the parties have agreed to the appropriateness of class certification, pursuant to the concurrently filed stipulation regarding class certification.

1 Plaintiffs' motion to certify the class and appoint class counsel is based upon
 2 this notice of motion, the concurrently filed memorandum of points and authorities,
 3 the declarations of Moe Keshavarzi, Sarah Hinger, Sylvia Torres-Guillén, Michael 4 Harris and Andrea Feathers, the request for judicial notice, the stipulation to certify
 5 class and appoint class counsel, the proposed order, all related pleadings and records 6 on file, all additional matters of which judicial notice may be taken and such 7 evidence and argument as may be presented at the hearing on this motion.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 This class action challenges the constitutionality of the Youth Accountability
4 Team (“YAT”), a county-run program that applies harsh criminal-style penalties to 5 children accused of minor school misbehavior or suffering from grief, mental health
6 issues or other difficulties.

7 The YAT probation program has been operated by the Riverside County
8 Probation Department since 2001. In recent years, school staff and probation
9 officers have referred thousands of children to the program. Of those, hundreds are 10 referred pursuant to California Welfare and Institutions Code section 601 (“Section 11 601”), a broadly worded statute that the Probation Department has interpreted to 12 give them jurisdiction over children who disobey school staff or their parents, or 13 who break minor school rules. After a referral, probation officers contact the child’s 14 guardian to instruct them to meet with the officers in person. During these 15 meetings, probation and other law enforcement officers routinely coerce children to 16 sign a YAT probation contract, which places the child on a six-month probation 17 term with onerous and invasive requirements ranging from regular meetings with 18 officers to drug testing, unannounced searches and restrictions on the persons with 19 whom the child can associate. The child is not provided with counsel or an 20 independent advocate to explain the terms of the probation contract or the 21 consequences for the child.

22 As set forth in more detail in Plaintiffs’ Complaint, Defendants’ operation of 23 the YAT program violates the constitutional rights of children referred to or placed 24 on YAT, including the right to due process, the right to counsel, freedom from 25 unreasonable searches and seizures, freedom of association and equal protection
26 under the law under California Government Code § 11135. Plaintiffs also allege 27 that Section 601 is unconstitutionally vague.
28

1 This motion and the concurrently filed stipulation of counsel for all parties
2 both ask the Court to certify the proposed class and appoint Plaintiffs' counsel as 3 class counsel. The proposed class definition is: "All children in Riverside County
4 who have been referred to the Riverside County Youth Accountability Team
5 ("YAT") program pursuant to Cal. Welf. & Inst. Code § 601, and who have either
6 been placed on a YAT probation contract or have been referred but not yet placed 7 on a YAT probation contract." As demonstrated in this motion, this case satisfies all 8 of the elements of Rule 23 and the Courts should grant this motion for the following 9 reasons.

10 Rule 23(a). Numerosity: This class is sufficiently numerous because it 11 includes at least hundreds (and probably thousands) of children referred to or placed 12 on YAT under Section 601.

13 Commonality: This case involves multiple common questions of law and fact
14 regarding what Defendants are required to or prohibited from doing to respect
15 children's constitutional rights. For example, an obvious common question posed
16 by this case is whether Section 601 is unconstitutionally vague. This common 17 question impacts every member of the putative class and by itself would be 18 sufficient to satisfy the commonality requirements of Rule 23(a). However, as 19 described below, there are many more common questions.

20 Typicality: The class representatives are typical because they are three 21 children who were referred to and placed on the YAT program based on Section 22 601, and they all allege that Riverside County's policies and practices regarding 23 YAT violated their constitutional rights.

24 Adequacy: The class representatives are adequate because they have no
25 antagonistic interests to other class members, and they are committed to fairly 26 representing the class. Class counsel are adequate because they have substantial 27 experience in complex litigation, class actions and civil rights law, they have deep 28

1 familiarity with the facts involved in this case and they are committed to zealously
2 prosecuting it on behalf of the class.

3 Rule 23(b). This case also satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(b)(2), which 4 was developed and designed specifically for civil rights cases, just like this one, in 5 which plaintiffs collectively challenge systemic government policies or programs.
6 Here, Plaintiffs challenge numerous policies and practices related to YAT that apply
7 generally to the whole class. This is precisely the type of class action Rule 23(b)(2)
8 contemplates. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request that the Court grant this motion and 9 certify the class.

10 II. SUMMARY OF FACTS

11 A. History and Structure of the YAT Program

12 In 2000, California passed the California Juvenile Justice Crime Prevention 13 Act (“JJCPA”), which provided funding for programs designed to reduce juvenile 14 delinquency. (Compl. ¶ 30.) The following year, Riverside County (the “County”)
15 adopted the Juvenile Justice Plan, which included the creation of the Youth
16 Accountability Team (“YAT”). (Compl. ¶ 32.) The County has operated YAT
17 consistently since then. Each year, the state allots funding under the JJCPA to the 18 counties, including Riverside. The County’s Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council 19 (“JJCC”) then allocates the County’s funding to various programs, the bulk of which 20 have gone to YAT. (Compl. ¶ 38.) In 2017-18, the County’s proposed budget
21 allocated about $10.6 million to YAT, 97 percent of the County’s JJCPA budget.
22 (Id.)

23 YAT is run by the County’s Probation Department, with participation from 24 other law enforcement agencies within the County and the District Attorney’s
25 Office. (Id.) The County relies on California Welfare & Institutions Code section
26 654 (“Section 654”) to operate YAT. Section 654 provides that, when a probation 27 officer concludes that a minor “is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court or will 28 probably soon be within that jurisdiction,” an officer may “with consent of the

1 minor and the minor's parent or guardian, delineate specific programs of supervision
2 for the minor, for not to exceed six months . . . ." Cal. Welf. & Inst. Code § 654.

3 B. Referral Process for the YAT Program

4 The County describes the YAT program as a pre-diversionary program for 5 children aged 12 to 17 who are displaying "pre-delinquent and delinquent
6 behavior." (Compl. ¶ 35 (emphasis added in Complaint); see also Request for 7 Judicial Notice ("RJN"), Exh. C, p. 4.) Students are referred to the YAT program
8 by school officials, by YAT officers (probation officers who work in the YAT
9 program) or others. YAT officers aggressively solicit referrals for children
10 considered to be "at risk," which YAT broadly defines to include "family conflict, 11 mental health, school adjustment, or gang involvement." (Compl. ¶ 36.)

12 A significant number of the children referred to YAT are referred based on 13 California Welfare & Institutions Code section 601 ("Section 601"). Section 601 14 purportedly authorizes schools to make a referral to the juvenile justice system and 15 probation officers to "take jurisdiction" over a juvenile any time the juvenile 16 "persistently or habitually refuses to obey the reasonable and proper orders or 17 directions of school authorities. . . ." Cal. Welfare & Inst. Code § 601(a). Section 18 601 does not define the terms "persistently," "habitually" or "reasonable and proper 19 orders or directions." See id. Instead, the interpretation and application of this law 20 is left to the discretion of school staff, thereby producing a significant risk that 21 referrals are tainted by implicit or explicit bias based on the race or disability status
22 of the child. (Compl. ¶ 44.)

23 Relying on the broad and ambiguous language in Section 601, the Probation
24 Department has actively solicited and required referrals from school staff for normal 25 school rule-breaking or misbehavior, such as the following:

- 26 • "failure/refusal to follow directives (actively or passively)";
- 27 • "talking back to security guard";
- 28 • breaking rules regarding "curfew, chores, telephone use" at home;

- 1 • “general and repetitive disrespect toward family or school authority
- 2 figures (incorrigible)”;
- 3 • “anti-social behavior that disrupts classroom activity”;
- 4 • “talking during class”;
- 5 • “refusal to do work”;
- 6 • “walking out of class”; and
- 7 • “talking back to the teacher.”

8 (Compl. ¶ 45.) Children have even been referred to YAT for reasons unrelated to 9 misbehavior—including mental health issues, grief or trauma, bullying or showing
 10 signs of a disability. (Compl. ¶¶ 46-47, 52.)

11 These ambiguous and aggressive referral practices have led to racial 12 disparities. During the 2015–16 school year, for example, Black children were 13 referred to YAT at nearly three times their rate of enrollment countywide. About 32
 14 percent of Riverside County students are Latinx, but Latinx students were more than 15 39 percent of all YAT referrals during the 2015–16 school year. A significantly 16 greater proportion (30 percent) of referrals for Latinx students were for the lowest-
 17 level Section 601 offenses, as compared to students in other racial groups.

18 C. Notification of Referral and YAT Probation Contracts

19 After a child is referred to YAT, YAT officers notify the child’s guardians 20 through a phone call or letter that the child has been referred to a “diversion 21 program” and that the child and family must attend a meeting with officers.
 22 (Compl. ¶¶ 53-54.) The phone calls and even the letters fall far short of satisfying
 23 the County’s due process obligations to give the children and family full and fair 24 notice. The notification fails to provide the child and the family with the reasons for 25 the child’s referral, or any explanation of the child’s rights, the juvenile court
 26 process, the requirements of YAT probation, the consequences of being placed on 27 YAT probation or the fact that the YAT program is entirely voluntary. (Compl.
 28

1 ¶ 56.) Even when letters are provided, they are written in English and no translation
 2 into other languages is provided. (Comp. ¶ 57.)

3 The initial YAT meeting is highly coercive, intimidating and misleading. No 4 counsel is provided, and officers do not tell the family they have a right to seek 5 counsel. (Compl. ¶¶ 53, 59, 61.) The meeting generally takes place in a police
 6 station or YAT office, and officers are sometimes armed. (Compl. ¶¶ 9, 59.)
 7 During the meeting, the officers produce for the child and family a pre-printed YAT
 8 probation contract, under which the child agrees to comply with numerous 9 conditions and prohibitions, purportedly to avoid prosecution of the child in juvenile 10 court. (Compl. ¶ 60.) Riverside County, however, does not actually prosecute
 11 purported Section 601 violations. (Id.) The terms and conditions of YAT contracts
 12 vary, but some include searches, drug testing and limitations on the juvenile's rights
 13 of association. (Compl. ¶¶ 65-66, 68.) These conditions are sometimes more 14 onerous than conditions imposed in actual juvenile courts for juveniles who are 15 accused of committing criminal violations. (Compl. ¶ 60.)

16 YAT contracts all last for a term of six months. (Compl. ¶ 64.) After 17 juveniles are placed on YAT, they become ineligible for any other diversionary
 18 program in the future—meaning that, if they are accused of a crime, they must go 19 into juvenile court and do not have the option of avoiding prosecution through a
 20 diversion program. (Compl. ¶¶ 34, 76.)

21 D. Injuries Alleged and Relief Sought

22 Plaintiffs<sup>2</sup> filed this lawsuit alleging that the YAT program violates the 23 constitutional and civil rights of children referred to or placed on YAT, including 24 the rights to due process, the right to counsel, freedom from unreasonable searches
 25
 26

---

27
 28 <sup>2</sup> In addition to Jacob T., J.F. and Andrew M., this lawsuit is brought by Sigma Beta Xi, Inc., a mentoring organization for youth in Riverside County.

1 and seizures, freedom of association and equal protection under the law. Plaintiffs
2 also allege that Section 601 is unconstitutionally vague.

3 Plaintiffs seek declaratory relief establishing that the Defendants' operation of 4 the YAT program is unlawful for these reasons and that Section 601 is 5 unconstitutionally vague. (See Complaint, Prayer V(A)-(F).) Plaintiffs also seek 6 injunctive relief primarily focused on prohibiting Defendants from continuing to 7 operate the YAT program in an unlawful manner. (Id., Prayer, VI(A)-(G).) In their 8 Complaint, Plaintiffs do not seek separate, individual relief for each of the plaintiffs 9 or for individual class members, other than nominal damages for the three named 10 plaintiffs only.

11 E. Proposed Class Representatives Jacob T., J.F. and Andrew M.<sup>3</sup>

12 Class Representative Jacob T. Jacob T. is a 16-year-old white male who lives
13 in Moreno Valley, a city in Riverside County. (Compl. ¶ 13.) In March 2018, when 14 he was a ninth-grade student, he was referred to YAT based on Section 601.
15 (Compl. ¶¶ 98-100.) Later that month, he and his parents attended a YAT meeting,
16 during which officers gave him a pre-printed YAT probation contract and urged him
17 to sign. (Compl. ¶¶ 101-102.) He did not have any legal counsel. (Compl. ¶ 3.)
18 Jacob T. signed the probation contract because he felt intimidated and thought he 19 had no other choice. (Compl. ¶¶ 102.)

20 Class Representative J.F. J.F. is a 17-year-old Black female who also lives in 21 Moreno Valley. (Compl. ¶¶ 14.) Sometime in late 2017 or early 2018, when she 22

23
25 (Compl. ¶ 14.) Andrew M. is appearing in this action via his mother and next friend 26 Denise M. (Compl. ¶ 12.) J.F. is appearing in this action via her grandmother and 27 next friend Cindy McConnell. (Compl. ¶ 14.) Jacob T., Andrew M. and J.F. are 28 proceeding via pseudonyms or initials. On August 8, 2018, the Court issued order allowing Jacob T. and Andrew M., to proceed under a pseudonym. (See ECF No.
28. In the August 8, 2018 order, the Court also authorized J.F. to proceed using her initials. (Id.)

1 was a high school sophomore, she was referred to YAT based on Section 601.
 2 (Compl. ¶¶ 109-110.) In February 2018, she and her grandmother attended a YAT
 3 meeting, during which officers gave her a pre-printed YAT probation contract and 4 asked her to sign it. (Compl. ¶¶ 109-114.) J.F. had no legal counsel. (Compl.
 5 ¶ 120.) J.F. thought she had no choice but to sign the YAT contract, so she did.
 6 (Compl. ¶¶ 113-114, 119-120.)

7 Class Representative Andrew M. Andrew M. is a 15-year-old Black male
 8 who lives in Moreno Valley, a city in Riverside County. (Compl. ¶ 12.) In March 9 2017, when he was an eighth-grade student, he was referred to YAT based on 10 Section 601. (Compl. ¶¶ 87, 89.) Later that month, he and three family members
 11 attended a YAT meeting, during which officers gave him a pre-printed YAT 12 probation contract and urged him to sign it. (Compl. ¶¶ 88-91.) He did not have 13 any legal counsel. (Compl. ¶ 92.) He signed the probation contract because he felt 14 intimidated and thought he had no other choice. (Compl. ¶¶ 91-92.)

15 Commitment to This Case. Jacob T, J.F., Andrew M. and their families are 16 highly dissatisfied with YAT and troubled by the program's invasive and onerous 17 requirements. (Compl. ¶¶ 108, 121-124.) They are steadfastly committed to 18 prosecuting this action on behalf of others who have been referred to or placed on 19 YAT. (See Compl. ¶ 138.) They hope to obtain relief that will vindicate the rights 20 of children who have been affected by the program and prevent Defendants from 21 continuing their unlawful conduct.

22 III. THE COURT SHOULD CERTIFY THE CLASS

23 Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a), class certification is proper if:
 24 (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable; (2) there 25 are questions of law or fact common to the class; (3) the claims or defenses of the 26 representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class; and (4) the 27 representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.
 28

1 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a). In addition to meeting the requirements of Rule 23(a), the 2 class must also satisfy at least one of three sub-provisions in Rule 23(b).

3 Plaintiffs move for certification of the following class:

4 All children in Riverside County who have been referred to 5 the Riverside County Youth Accountability Team (“YAT”) program pursuant to Cal. Welf. & Inst. Code § 601, and 6 who have either been placed on a YAT probation contract or have been referred but not yet placed on a YAT probation 7 contract.

8 This class satisfies all the requirements of Rule 23(a) because it consists of hundreds 9 (and possibly thousands) of Riverside County children who were referred to or 10 placed on the county’s YAT program and who allege violation of their constitutional
 11 and civil rights as a result. The class action also satisfies Rule 23(b)(2) because it
 12 alleges actions or omissions by Defendants that are generally applicable to children
 13 who were referred to or participated in YAT and it seeks declaratory and injunctive
 14 relief related to YAT, which would affect the class as a whole.

15 A. The Proposed Class Satisfies the Requirements of Rule 23(a)

16 1. The Class is Sufficiently Numerous Because It Includes
 17 Hundreds of Children Referred to or Placed on YAT

18 The numerosity requirement in Rule 23(a)(1) requires that the class be “so 19 numerous that joinder of all members is impractical.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1).
 20 “[I]mpracticability does not mean impossibility, but only the difficulty or 21 inconvenience of joining all members of the class.” Harris v. Palm Springs Alpine 22 Estates, Inc., 329 F.2d 909, 913-14 (9th Cir. 1964) (internal quotation marks and 23 citation omitted). The numerosity requirement is a fact-specific inquiry and imposes
 24 no absolute limitations. General Tel. Co. v. EEOC, 446 U.S. 318, 330 (1980).
 25 Class plaintiffs are not required to prove the precise number of class members, and 26 when the exact size is unknown, the court may rely on “general knowledge and 27
 28

1 common sense” to assess numerosity. Costelo v. Chertoff, 258 F.R.D. 600, 607
2 (C.D. Cal. 2009).

3 Courts generally find that the numerosity requirement is satisfied when the 4 class consists of 40 or more members, but courts have certified classes with as few
5 as 20 members. See Ambrosia v. Cogent Commc’ns, Inc., 312 F.R.D. 544, 552
6 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (explaining that “a class greater than forty often satisfies the 7 requirement”); Rannis v. Recchia, 380 F.App’x 646, 651 (9th Cir. 2010) (class of 20
8 members satisfied numerosity); Costelo, 258 F.R.D. at 607 (certifying class of 9 imprecise size where at least 26 class members were known and plaintiffs alleged 10 there were thousands more).

11 In this case, numerosity is easily satisfied. The proposed class consists of 12 children referred to or placed on Riverside County’s YAT program pursuant to 13 California Welfare & Institutions Code section 601 (“Section 601”). Defendants
14 operate the YAT program in dozens of school districts throughout Riverside County.
15 (Compl. ¶ 39; RJN, Exh. B, p. 2, Exh. C, p. 4.) Thousands of children are referred 16 to the program each year and hundreds of them sign probation contracts placing 17 them in the program. (Compl. ¶ 135; RJN, Exh. B, pp. 2-3, Exh. C, p. 5; 18 Declaration of Andrea N. Feathers (“Feathers Decl.”), ¶¶ 6-7, Exh. A.) Riverside
19 County’s Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council (“JJCC”) is the government entity
20 that authorizes and oversees YAT. In public reports documenting the YAT
21 program, the JJCC reported that, as of November 2017, 357 children were on a YAT
22 probation contract. (RJN, Exh. B, p. 2.) Even more students were referred to the 23 program. JJCC reports show 950 children were referred to the program from April
24 2017 to September 2017. (Id.) Furthermore, data maintained by the County’s
25 Probation Department, obtained through a public records request, show that, from 26 January 2005 through April 2017 more than 9,200 children were referred to YAT
27 pursuant to Section 601. (Feathers Decl., ¶ 6, Exh. A.)
28

1 Of the thousands of children who were referred to YAT, hundreds were
 2 referred pursuant to California Welfare & Institutions Code section 601 (“Section
 3 601”). According to data released by the Probation Department, more than 3,200 of 4 the approximately 9,200 referred to YAT pursuant to Section 601 were placed on a
 5 YAT contract. (Feathers Decl., ¶ 7, Exh. A.) During 2016, the last full year
 6 reflected in the data, more than 850 children were referred to YAT based on Section
 7 601 and nearly 350 of those were placed on a YAT contract.

8 Thus, the proposed class of children who have been referred to and/or placed 9 on a YAT contract number at least in the hundreds and far exceed the number of class
 10 members that courts have deemed sufficiently numerous to satisfy Rule 23(a)(1).

11 2. Class Members Share Common Questions of Law or Fact

12 The commonality requirement in Rule 23(a)(2) is satisfied when the proposed 13 class’ claims “depend upon a common contention such that determination of its truth 14 or falsity will resolve an issue that is central to the validity of each claim in one
 15 stroke.” Mazza v. Am. Honda Motor Co., 666 F.3d 581, 588 (9th Cir. 2012)
 16 (internal quotations omitted). Courts apply this standard “permissively.” Hanlon v.
 17 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1019 (1998). That means a single common question
 18 satisfies the commonality requirement. Parsons v. Ryan, 754 F.3d 657, 675 (9th 19 Cir. 2014) (explaining that “even a preponderance of questions” is not required); 20 Rodriguez v. Hayes, 591 F.3d 1105, 1122 (9th Cir. 2010) (“[T]he commonality 21 requirement[] asks us to look only for some shared legal issue or a common core of 22 facts.”); Ellis v. Costco Wholesale Corp., 657 F.3d 970, 981 (9th Cir. 2011)
 23 (explaining that “[a]ll questions of fact and law need not be common”).<sup>4</sup>

24 Commonality also does not require absolute factual uniformity. See Hanlon,
 25 150 F.3d at 1019. Individual class members may have unique factual circumstances
 26

27
 28 <sup>4</sup> Rule 23(b)(2) actions, unlike Rule 23(b)(3) actions, do not require showing common questions of fact or law predominate over questions affecting individual members.

1 as long as there is “a common core of factual or legal issues with the rest of the 2 class.” Evon v. Law Offices of Sidney Mickell, 688 F.3d 1015, 1029 (9th Cir. 2012);
 3 Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1019.

4 In civil rights cases seeking injunctive relief, the Ninth Circuit has held 5 commonality is satisfied when the lawsuit “challenges a system-wide practice or 6 policy that affects all of the putative class members.” Armstrong v. Davis, 275 F.3d
 7 849, 868 (9th Cir. 2001) (abrogated on other grounds by Johnson v. California, 543
 8 U.S. 499, 504-05 (2005)); Hernandez v. County of Monterey, 305 F.R.D. 132, 151
 9 (N.D. Cal. 2015). For example, district courts have frequently certified classes of 10 children collectively challenging systemic policies or programs. See, e.g., Inland
 11 Empire - Immigrant Youth Collective v. Nielsen, No. EDCV 17-2048 PSG (SHKx), 12 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 34871, at *26 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 26, 2018) (certifying class of 13 immigration youth challenging immigration policies); Doe v. L.A. Unified Sch. Dist., 14 48 F. Supp. 2d 1233, 1235 (C.D. Cal. 1999) (certifying class of students with limited 15 English proficiency who challenged state ballot regarding bilingual education);
 16 Siddiqi v. Regents of the Univ. of Cal., No. C 99-0790 SI, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS
 17 19930, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Sep. 6, 2000) (certifying class of deaf and hard-of-hearing 18 students who challenged university policies).

19 In this case, Plaintiffs raise numerous legal questions that are common to the 20 class, including:

- 21 (1) Whether California Welfare & Institutions Code § 601 is
- 22 unconstitutionally vague;
- 23 (2) Whether Defendants are required to provide adequate notice to
- 24 children who are referred to YAT of the basis and circumstances
- 25 of their referral;
- 26 (3) Whether Defendants are required to provide adequate notice to
- 27 children who are referred to YAT of any statutes, other laws or
- 28

1 rules they are alleged to have violated in connection with their 2 YAT referral;

3 (4) Whether Defendants are required to provide adequate
 4 explanation to children who are referred to YAT of the 5 requirements of the YAT program and any consequences of 6 participating in the YAT program;

7 (5) Whether Defendants are required to provide adequate notice to 8 children who are referred to YAT that participation in YAT will 9 preclude them from participating in other diversionary programs
 10 in the future; and

11 (6) Whether Defendants are required to adequately advise children
 12 of their right to consult with legal counsel before the child
 13 decides whether to agree to a YAT probation contract.<sup>5</sup>

14 Any of these common legal issues would be sufficient to satisfy the commonality
 15 requirement. See Parsons, 754 F.3d at 675 (single common question is sufficient); 16 Rodriguez, 591 F.3d at 1122 (commonality only requires “some shared legal issue or 17 a common core of facts”). The resolution of any of these legal issues in Plaintiffs’
 18 favor would result in class-wide declaratory relief deeming that particular aspect of 19 the YAT program unconstitutional, and it would result in injunctive relief
 20 prohibiting Defendants from continuing to operate YAT in an unlawful manner.

21 For example, Issue No. 1 asks whether Section 601 is unconstitutionally
 22 vague on its face. Section 601 gives juvenile courts and local agencies such as 23 Riverside County authority over juveniles who show “persistent or habitual refusal 24 to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of school authorities.” Cal.
 25 Welf. & Inst. Code § 601. (Compl. ¶ 43.) Riverside County relies on Section 601 26 _____

27 <sup>5</sup> Commonality is also supported by the additional common issues listed in the 28 Complaint (see Compl. ¶ 136), but for brevity, Plaintiffs have not listed all of them here in full.

1 as its authority for referring and enrolling students in the YAT program, and all of 2 the proposed class members were referred to YAT pursuant to Section 601.
 3 (Compl. ¶ 42.) If the Court finds this portion of Section 601 to be unconstitutionally 4 vague, the entire class will be entitled to declaratory relief finding it is 5 unconstitutionally vague (see Compl., Prayer for Relief, ¶ V(C)) and injunctive
 6 relief prohibiting Defendants from enforcing that portion of Section 601. (Compl., 7 ¶ 12.)

8 In addition to these common legal questions, the class members also share a 9 common core of facts, which would satisfy the commonality requirement even if 10 this case lacked common legal questions. The class members are all children.
 11 (Compl. ¶ 12-14.) They were all referred to Riverside County’s YAT program
 12 pursuant to California Welfare & Institutions Code section 601. (Compl. ¶ 152.)
 13 They were all subjected to a program run by Defendants that lacks adequate 14 procedural safeguards to protect the class members’ Constitutional rights. (Compl.
 15 ¶ 159.) This “common core” of similar facts thus also satisfies Rule 23(a)(2).

16 3. Jacob T.’s, J.F.’s and Andrew M.’s Claims Are Typical of the 17 Class

18 The typicality requirement in Rule 23(a)(3) is satisfied when the class 19 representatives are “part of the class and ‘possess the same interest and suffer the 20 same injury’ as the class members.” Gen. Tel. Co. of the Sw. v. Falcon, 457 U.S.
 21 147, 156 (1982) (citation omitted). Like the commonality requirement, the 22 typicality requirement is “permissive.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020; McCulloch v.
 23 Baker Hughes Inteq Drilling Fluids, Inc., No. 1:16-cv-00157-DAD-JLT, 2017 WL
 24 2257130, at *8 (E.D. Cal. May 23, 2017). It requires only that the representative’s 25 claims are “reasonably coextensive with those of absent class members; they need
 26 not be substantially identical.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020; McCulloch, 2017 WL
 27 2257130, at *8. In other words, factual differences among the class representatives 28 and the other class members do not defeat typicality, provided there is at least one

1 legal question common to all. See LaDuke v. Nelson, 762 F.2d 1318, 1332 (9th Cir.
 2 1985) (concluding that “minor differences” in how the government violated the 3 representatives’ rights does not render their claims atypical); Smith v. Univ. of Wash.
 4 Law Sch., 2 F. Supp. 2d 1324, 1342 (W.D. Wash. 1998) (“varying fact patterns” of 5 “individual claims” do not affect typicality where defendants directed “same 6 unlawful conduct” at class members).

7 In civil rights cases, courts have recognized that, “[w]hen it is alleged that the 8 same unlawful conduct was directed at or affected both the named plaintiff and the 9 class sought to be represented, the typicality requirement is usually satisfied,
 10 irrespective of varying fact patterns which underlie individual claims.” Smith, 2 F.
 11 Supp. 2d at 1342; Perez-Olano v. Gonzalez, 248 F.R.D. 248, 258 (C.D. Cal. 2008)
 12 (citing Smith approvingly).

13 Jacob T., J.F. and Andrew M. are all class members under the class definition.
 14 They are all children who were referred to YAT pursuant to Section 601 when they 15 were students at Riverside County schools. (Compl. ¶ 12-14.) They were all placed 16 on YAT probation contracts, and they all allege that Riverside County’s policies and 17 practices in implementing the YAT program violated their constitutional rights.
 18 (Compl. ¶ 11; see also generally Complaint.) As explained in Section 3.A.2., Jacob
 19 T.’s, J.F.’s and Andrew M.’s claims raise multiple legal questions that are common
 20 to the entire class. Thus, Jacob T., J.F. and Andrew M. are typical of the class
 21 members and they satisfy Rule 23(a)(3).

22 4. Jacob T., J.F., Andrew M. and Plaintiffs’ Counsel Will Fairly 23 and Adequately Protect the Interests of the Class.

24 The adequacy requirement in Rule 23(a)(4) is satisfied if “the representative 25 parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P.
 26 23(a)(4). The adequacy analysis asks two questions: “(1) do the named plaintiffs 27 and their counsel have any conflicts of interest with other class members and 28 (2) will the named plaintiffs and their counsel prosecute the action vigorously on

1 behalf of the class?” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020 (internal citation omitted). Factors
 2 to consider include “the qualifications of counsel for the representatives, an absence 3 of antagonism, a sharing of interests between representatives and absentees, and the 4 unlikelihood that the suit is collusive.” Walters v. Reno, 145 F.3d 1032, 1046 (9th
 5 Cir. 1998). The adequacy requirement “is satisfied as long as one of the class
 6 representatives is an adequate class representative.” Rodriguez v. West Publ’g
 7 Corp., 563 F3d 948, 961 (9th Cir. 2009) (internal quotation marks and citation 8 omitted).

9 Jacob T., J.F. and Andrew M. will fairly and adequately represent the class 10 because their interests are consistent with and not adverse to the interests of the 11 proposed class. Like the other class members, Jacob T., J.F. and Andrew M. are 12 youth in Riverside County who have been referred to and placed on a YAT 13 probation contract. (Compl. ¶¶ 87, 100, 112.) They have a personal interest in 14 vindicating the rights of all youth who have been referred to or placed on YAT and 15 are committed to obtaining injunctive relief that will eliminate the harmful and 16 unconstitutional aspects of the program. (Comp. ¶ 138.) None of them have any 17 interests that are antagonistic to the interests of the other class members. (Id.)

18 Plaintiffs’ counsel also are qualified and adequate. In class actions, plaintiffs’
 19 counsel is considered qualified when they can establish experience in previous class
 20 actions and cases involving the same area of law. See Lynch v. Rank, 604 F. Supp.
 21 30, 37 (N.D. Cal. 1984), aff’d, 747 F.2d 528 (9th Cir. 1984), amended on reh’g, 763
 22 F.2d 1098 (9th Cir. 1985). Here, Plaintiffs are represented by counsel from the 23 American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Southern California, the American 24 Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Northern California, the American Civil 25 Liberties Union Foundation of San Diego and Imperial Counties, the American Civil 26 Liberties Union Foundation, the National Center for Youth Law, and Sheppard
 27 Mullin Richter & Hampton LLP (together, “Plaintiffs’ Counsel”). (Decl. of Moe 28 Keshavarzi (“Keshavarzi Decl.”), ¶ 6; Decl. of Sylvia Torres-Guillén (“Torres-

Guillén Decl.”)), ¶ 1; Decl. of Sarah Hinger, ¶ 1 (“Hinger Decl.”); Decl. of Michael Harris (“Harris Decl.”), ¶ 6.) Plaintiffs’ Counsel have considerable experience in class actions and constitutional litigation in federal court, including cases involving juvenile justice and children’s rights, education equity, racial justice and other civil rights claims. (Keshavarzi Decl., ¶ 3-4; Torres-Guillén Decl., ¶ 8; Hinger Decl., ¶ 5; Harris Decl., ¶ 3.) Plaintiffs’ Counsel will prosecute this action vigorously. (Keshavarzi Decl., ¶¶ 6; Torres-Guillén Decl., ¶ 13; Hinger Decl., ¶ 7; Harris Decl., ¶ 7.) Accordingly, Plaintiffs’ Counsel and the proposed class representatives satisfy the adequacy requirement in Rule 23(a)(4).

B. The Proposed Class Satisfies Rule 23(b)(2) Because the Class Seeks Declaratory and Injunctive Relief Applicable to the Entire Class.

In addition to satisfying the requirements of Rule 23(a), a proposed class must also satisfy one of the three subdivisions of Rule 23(b). Plaintiffs seek to certify this class under Rule 23(b)(2), which applies if the defendant “has acted or refused to act on grounds that apply generally to the class, so that final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief is appropriate respecting the class as a whole.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b). As the Advisory Notes to Rule 23 explain, “23(b)(2) was adopted in order to permit the prosecution of civil rights actions” by allowing plaintiffs to seek injunctive or declaratory relief from the government on a class-wide basis. Walters, 145 F.3d at 1047; Arnold v. United Artists Theatre Circuit, Inc., 158 F.R.D. 439, 452 (N.D. Cal. 1994) (explaining that civil rights cases are “the type of action for which the [Rule 23(b)(2)] form was specifically designed”).

Courts have recognized that Rule 23(b)(2) certification is appropriate where plaintiffs seek “systemic changes consistent with a single overarching constitutional standard that [will] be applicable to all class members.” See, e.g., Lyon v. United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement, 300 F.R.D. 628, 643 (N.D. Cal. 2014), modified 308 F.R.D. 203; Rodriguez, 591 F.3d at 1125 (explaining that 23(b)(2) applies when “class members complain of a pattern or practice that is generally applicable to the class as a whole”).

In this case, Plaintiffs challenge numerous policies and practices in the YAT program that are generally applicable to the class as a whole, and they seek class-wide relief to enjoin Defendants from continuing those unconstitutional policies and practices. (See generally Compl. and Prayer for Relief.) If successful on these common questions about the constitutionality of Defendants’ operation of the YAT program, all class members will receive the same relief—a declaratory judgment finding Defendants’ practice to be unconstitutional and an injunction halting it. Because all class members make several requests for declaratory and injunctive relief that will be the same regardless of class members’ specific factual circumstances, Rule 23(b)(2)’s requirements are satisfied.

IV. THE COURT SHOULD APPOINT PLAINTIFFS’ COUNSEL AS CLASS COUNSEL

Plaintiffs request that this Court appoint Plaintiffs’ Counsel as counsel for the class. In appointing class counsel, the Court should consider “(i) the work counsel has done in identifying or investigating potential claims in the action; (ii) counsel’s experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and the types of claims asserted in the action; (iii) counsel’s knowledge of the applicable law; and (iv) the resources that counsel will commit to representing the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g)(1)(A).

Plaintiffs’ Counsel have done substantial work on this matter. The ACLU and co-counsel have worked on this case for several months, and have conducted extensive legal and factual research. (Guillén-Torres Decl., ¶ 12; Keshavarzi Decl., ¶ 6; Hinger Decl., ¶ 6; Harris Decl., ¶ 6.) The legal team has sufficiently wide and extensive experience with class actions, other complex litigation, and constitutional law to represent the proposed class. (Decl. of Guillén-Torres, ¶ 10-11; Keshavarzi Decl., ¶¶ 4-5; Hinger Decl., ¶ 6; Decl. of Harris, ¶ 3.) Plaintiffs’ Counsel are

1 committed to zealously prosecuting this litigation, and have committed substantial
 2 resources to represent the class and pursue relief on its behalf. (Guillén-Torres
 3 Decl., ¶ 12-13; Keshavarzi Decl., ¶ 6; Hinger Decl., ¶ 7; Harris Decl., ¶ 6.)
 4 Accordingly, Plaintiffs' Counsel satisfy all of the requirements of Rule 23(g) and 5 should be appointed as class counsel.

6 V. IF ASCERTAINABILITY IS REQUIRED, THE CLASS IS 7 ASCERTAINABLE

8 Courts have generally not required plaintiffs to prove ascertainability for 9 Rule 23(b)(2) classes because this type of class action was designed for civil rights 10 cases, including those where the class members are “incapable of specific 11 enumeration.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, Adv. Committee Notes, 1999 Amendment; see 12 also Cole v. City of Memphis, 839 F.3d 530, 542 (6th Cir. 2016) (ascertainability not 13 required for 23(b)); Shelton v. Bledsoe, 775 F.3d 554, 563 (3d Cir. 2015) (same);
 14 Shook v. El Paso Cty., 386 F.3d 963, 972 (10th Cir. 2004) (same); Yaffe v. Powers, 15 454 F.2d 1362, 1366 (1st Cir. 1972) (same). But the Ninth Circuit has not 16 definitively decided this question. See Inland Empire - Immigrant Youth Collective,
 17 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 34871 at *39. In the absence of binding Ninth Circuit
 18 authority, district courts in the Ninth Circuit have agreed with other circuits that 19 Rule 23(b)(2) classes do not require a showing of ascertainability. In re Yahoo Mail
 20 Litig., 308 F.R.D. 577, 597 (N.D. Cal. 2015); Des Roches v. Cal. Physicians' Serv.,
 21 320 F.R.D. 486, 512 (N.D. Cal. 2017); see also Hernandez v. Lynch, No. EDCV 16-
 22 00620-JGB (KKx), 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 191881, at *43 n.17 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 10, 23 2016) (Bernal, J.) (noting that “[c]ourts have held that ascertainability may not be 24 required with respect to a class seeking injunctive relief,” but not deciding issue 25 because members were ascertainable).

26 This Court should similarly hold that ascertainability is not required for this 27 Rule 23(b)(2) class action. However, if this Court requires ascertainability, 28 Plaintiffs can satisfy this standard. A class is ascertainable if “it is administratively feasible for the court to determine whether a particular individual is a member’ using objective criteria.” Hernandez, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 191881, at *42-43 (quoting Keegan v. Am. Honda Motor Co., Inc., 284 F.R.D. 504, 521 (C.D. Cal. 2012)). Here, the Riverside County Probation Department kept records of children referred to and placed on YAT and the reasons for their referral, as demonstrated by the data disclosed by the Probation Department in response to a public records request. (See Feathers Decl., ¶¶ 1-5, Exh. A.) The members of the class are ascertainable through records such as this data, which can be easily filtered to identify the children who would be members of this class because they were referred or placed on YAT under Section 601. (See Feathers Decl., ¶ 7.)

VI. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Court should grant Plaintiffs’ motion for class certification, certify the proposed class pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b)(2), appoint Plaintiffs Jacob T., J.F. and Andrew M. as the class representatives, and appoint Plaintiffs’ Counsel as class counsel.

Attorneys for Plaintiffs

DECLARATION OF MOE KESHAVARZI

I, Moe Keshavarzi, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of California and before this Court. I am a partner at the law firm of Sheppard, Mullin, Richter, & Hampton LLP. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein, and, if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto under oath.

2. I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification.

3. I have over 15 years of experience as a practicing attorney. I handle civil litigation in state and federal courts, including the United States District Court for the Central District of California. I have particular specialty in class actions. During my career, I have represented clients in numerous class actions, including Knapp v. Art.com (Case No. 3:16-CV-00768-WHO) and Adan v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., et al. (Case No. 4:17-cv-01076-HSG), both in the Northern District of California, Stern v. RMG, et al. (Case No. 3:17-cv-01646-JLS-NLS) in the Southern District of California, and Spann v. J.C. Penney, et al., (Case No. 8:12-cv-00215-FMO) in the Central District of California.

4. I also have experience litigating similar pro bono cases. Most recently I was part of a team that represented a group of homeless individuals who sued the City of Fullerton seeking to compel it to comply with state law regarding provision of homeless shelters. That case was York, et al. v. City of Fullerton, et al. (Case No. 30-2013-00675291-CU-WM-CJC) pending in Superior Court of California, County of Orange.

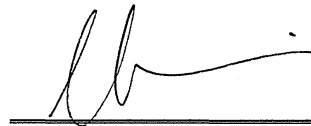

5. I am member of multiple organizations that advocate for constitutional rights and civil rights including. I am currently a board member of the Western Center on Law and Poverty, an organization that fights for justice and system-wide

1 change to secure housing, health care, racial justice, and a strong safety net for low-
2 income Californians. I am also a board member of the Lawyers' Committee for 3 Civil Rights Under the Law, an organization that secures equal justice for all 4 through the rule of law and targets the inequities confronting African Americans and 5 other racial and ethnic minorities. I am also on the board of Public Counsel in 6 Los Angeles.

7 6. Sheppard, Mullin, Richter, & Hampton LLP is committed to vigorously
8 litigating this case. The firm has committed and will continue to commit all 9 necessary financial resources to properly represent the plaintiff class. The firm has 10 also assigned numerous associates to this case.

11
12 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California
13 that the foregoing is true and correct.

14

Attorneys for Plaintiffs

DECLARATION OF SYLVIA TORRES-GUILLÉN

I, Sylvia Torres-Guillén, declare as follows:

1. I am one of the attorneys for Plaintiffs in the above-captioned case, along with counsel from The American Civil Liberties Union Foundation, the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Northern California, the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of San Diego and Imperial Counties, the National Center for Youth Law, and Shepard, Mullin, Richter, and Hampton LLP. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein, and, if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto under oath.

2. I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification. Specifically, I submit this declaration in support of the proposition that Plaintiffs, through their counsel, will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

3. Throughout the course of this case, the ACLU Foundation of Southern California ("ACLU SoCal") has served as counsel for Plaintiffs. Victor Leung, Hannah Comstock, Alexis Piazza, and I are the ACLU SoCal attorneys primarily responsible for and involved in this litigation.

4. The American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) is a nationwide, nonprofit, nonpartisan organization with nearly two million members dedicated to the principles of liberty and equality embodied in the Constitution and this nation's civil rights laws. Since it was founded in 1920, the ACLU has litigated complex civil rights and civil liberties cases in courts throughout the country, including this Court, in a wide range of subject areas. ACLU SoCal is one of the largest regional affiliates of the American Civil Liberties Union and is dedicated to defending and securing important constitutional rights and to extend these rights to people who have been excluded from their protection. ACLU SoCal has extensive expertise in

1 class action litigation and due process litigation and has participated in numerous 2 cases in federal court related to education, criminal, and juvenile justice systems.

3 5. ACLU SoCal's attorneys routinely serve as class counsel in federal 4 litigation. Illustrative recent examples include: Inland Empire Immigrant Youth
5 Collective, et al. v. Nielsen, Civ. Case No. 17-2048, 2018 WL 1061408 (C.D. Cal.
6 Feb. 26, 2018) (order granting class certification); Hernandez v. Sessions, Civ. Case
7 No. 16-00620, 2016 WL 7116611 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 10 2016) (same); Wagafe v.
8 Trump, Civ. No. 17-94, 2017 WL 2671254 (W.D. Wash. June 11, 2017) (same);
9 Youth Justice Coalition v. City of Los Angeles, 264 F. Supp. 3d 1057 (C.D. Cal
10 2017) (same); Roy v. County of Los Angeles, Civ. No. 12-9012, 2018 WL 5219468
11 (C.D. Cal. September 9, 2018) (order granting in part class certification).

12 6. I graduated from Harvard University in 1988 and University of 13 California, Berkeley, School of Law (Boalt Hall) in 1992. I am admitted to practice 14 in the State of California, the United States Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals for 15 the Ninth Circuit, and the Central, Southern, Eastern, and Northern Districts of 16 California. After graduating from law school, I served for nearly two decades as a 17 federal public defender in the Central District of California. I handled thousands of 18 criminal cases in federal court, roughly 40 of which proceeded to trial. I managed 19 complex federal litigation and trials, including myriad motions raising extensive 20 constitutional and civil rights claims. For nearly twenty years I pursued criminal 21 justice and due process issues in federal court and zealously represented my clients
22 to ensure that their Constitutional rights were protected.

23 7. After serving as a federal public defender, I was appointed by Governor
24 Brown as General Counsel of the state Agricultural Labor Relations Board, where,
25 as chief prosecutor, I pursued complaints of unfair labor practices and sought justice
26 for California's 800,000 farmworkers. As the agency head from 2011-15, I provided 27 the highest level of service to ensure agricultural workers received fair and just 28

1 treatment and successfully enforced the Agricultural Labor Relations Act. I then
2 served as special counsel to Governor Jerry Brown from 2015-16.

3 8. I have been employed by ACLU SoCal as a senior staff attorney and 4 the Director of Education Equity since 2016. In my current role, I lead, manage,
5 and coordinate the work on education equity for all three California affiliates of the 6 ACLU and supervise attorneys and advocates engaged in that work. I manage and 7 am lead counsel in all the ACLU of California Education Equity litigation
8 throughout California in both state and federal court. Since joining the ACLU, I 9 have been involved in several federal civil rights cases addressing a broad range of 10 civil rights issues. At ACLU SoCal, I most recently led and handled Community
11 Coalition v. Los Angeles Unified School District (Los Angeles Superior Court, Case 12 No. BS156259), a lawsuit seeking to compel LAUSD to provide the proper amount 13 of funding and services to high-need students. Through my work, I have developed 14 significant expertise in constitutional and civil rights litigation and the legal issues 15 related to this matter.

16 9. In 2018, I was named a California Lawyer Attorney of the Year in the 17 area of Education. In 2015, I was named the State Bar of California's Ronald M.
18 George Public Lawyer of the Year. I also received the Mexican American Bar
19 Association's Benito Juarez Attorney of the Year Award in 2012 and the California 20 Rural Legal Assistance, Inc. Community Leadership Award in 2011. I was among 21 the California Daily Journal's Top Women Lawyers in 2012.

22 10. Victor Leung graduated from Pomona College in 2004 and from New 23 York University School of Law in 2009. He joined ACLU SoCal as a legal fellow 24 immediately after graduating from law school, where he worked on a variety of civil 25 rights cases, many of which involved criminal justice, education equity, and due
26 process issues. Victor subsequently was an associate at Latham & Watkins LLP
27 from 2010-14, where he specialized in complex commercial litigation. At Latham
28 & Watkins, Victor handled dozens of cases in state and federal court.

11. Victor returned to ACLU SoCal in 2014 as a staff attorney and is currently the Deputy Litigation Director. Victor's education equity and juvenile rights cases include Community Coalition v. LAUSD (Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. BS156259), Cruz v. State of California (Alameda Superior Court, Case No. RG14727139), which was a class action lawsuit filed against the state of California for allowing students attending low-income schools to receive less learning time; and Reed v. State of California (Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. BC432420), which addressed the inequitable distribution of teacher layoffs in under-performing schools in Los Angeles. Victor was named a California Lawyer Attorney of the Year in 2018 in the area of Education.

12. ACLU SoCal has devoted substantial time reviewing and analyzing the facts underlying this case and the applicable law. This work has included, among other things: conducting extensive factual investigation including through numerous public records requests and document review; consulting with potential clients before the litigation commenced; conducting extensive legal research and analysis; and developing case strategy in connection with the complaint.

13. ACLU SoCal has the capacity to vigorously litigate the claims in this case and will commit all necessary resources to properly represent the plaintiff class. ACLU SoCal is committed to working with co-counsel for the benefit of the class.

14. For these reasons, I submit that I and my colleagues will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the plaintiff class in this case.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on September 13, 2018, at Los Angeles, California.

Attorneys for Plaintiffs

DECLARATION OF SARAH HINGER

I, Sarah Hinger, a member of the State Bar of New York, declare as follows:

1. I am one of the attorneys for Plaintiffs in the above-captioned case, along with counsel from The American Civil Liberties Union of Southern California, the American Civil Liberties Union of Northern California, the American Civil Liberties Union of San Diego, the National Center for Youth Law, and Shepard, Mullin, Richter, and Hampton LLP. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein, and, if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto under oath.

2. I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification. Specifically, I submit this declaration in support of the proposition that Plaintiffs, through their counsel, will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

3. The American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) is a nationwide, nonprofit, nonpartisan organization with nearly two million members dedicated to the principles of liberty and equality embodied in the Constitution and this nation's civil rights laws. Since it was founded in 1920, the ACLU has litigated complex civil rights and civil liberties cases in courts throughout the country, including this Court, in a wide range of subject areas. The ACLU's Racial Justice Program, where I serve as a Staff Attorney, engages in a nationwide program of litigation and advocacy to enforce and protect the constitutional and civil rights of people who have been historically denied their rights on the basis of race.

4. The ACLU's attorneys routinely serve as class counsel in federal litigation. Illustrative recent examples include: Inland Empire Immigrant Youth Collective, et al. v. Nielsen, Civ. Case No. 17-2048, 2018 WL 1061408) (C.D. Cal. Feb. 26, 2018) (order granting class certification); Garza v. Hargan, 304 F. Supp. 3d 145 (D. D.C. 2018) (same); Hill v. Snyder, Civ. No. 10-14568, 2018 WL 1782710

1 (E.D. Mich. Apr. 9, 2018) (same); Wagafe v. Trump, Civ. No. 17-94, 2017 WL
2 2671254 (W.D. Wash. June 11, 2017) (same); Roy v. County of Los Angeles, Civ.
3 No. 12-9012, 2018 WL 5219468 (C.D. Cal. September 9, 2018) (order granting in 4 part class certification); Ms. L. v. United States Customs and Immigration
5 Enforcement, Civ. No. 18-428 (S.D. CA June 26, 2018) (same).

6       5. I have been employed as a Staff Attorney with the ACLU since 2015.
7 Since joining the ACLU, I have been involved—by way of either direct litigation or 8 as counsel for amici curiae—in numerous federal civil rights cases addressing a 9 broad range of civil rights issues. These include serving as lead counsel in cases
10 addressing civil rights in education. See Winston v. Salt Lake City, Civ. No. 12-1134
11 (D. Utah); Kenny v. Wilson, Civ. No. 16-2794 (D. S.C.). Prior to joining the ACLU
12 as a Staff Attorney, I was employed as a Trial Attorney with the U.S. Department of 13 Justice Civil Rights Division, Educational Opportunities Section. I am admitted to 14 practice in the State of New York, the United States Supreme Court, the Court of 15 Appeals for the First Circuit, and the Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. I
16 graduated from Columbia Law School in 2009. Through my work, I have developed 17 significant expertise in constitutional and civil rights litigation, class action 18 litigation, and the legal issues related to this matter.

19       6. The ACLU has devoted substantial time reviewing and analyzing the 20 facts underlying this case and the applicable law. This work has included, among 21 other things: conducting extensive factual investigation including through numerous 22 public records requests and document review; consulting with potential clients 23 before the litigation commenced; conducting legal research and analysis; and 24 developing case strategy in connection with the complaint.

25       7. The ACLU has the capacity to vigorously litigate the claims in this case 26 and will commit all necessary resources to properly represent the plaintiff class. The 27 ACLU is committed to working with co-counsel for the benefit of the class.

DECLARATION OF MICHAEL HARRIS

I, Michael Harris, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of California and before this Court. I am the Senior Director of Juvenile Justice and Legal Advocacy at the National Center for Youth Law (“NCYL”). I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein, and, if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto under oath.

2. I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Class Certification.

3. I have more than 30 years’ experience litigating civil rights cases. I have particular specialty in youth rights, including juvenile justice issues. Representative cases I have worked on include: I was co-counsel in a class action constitutional challenge to the closing of the Richmond Unified School District six weeks prior to the of the end of the school year. Butt v. R.U.S.D., 4 Cal.4th 668, (1992). I argued the case before the California Supreme Court. I was also co-counsel in a class action consent decree implementation of a desegregation case and the defense of the decree from collateral attack and appeal. In San Francisco NAACP, et al., v. San Francisco Unified School District, et al., Brian Ho, 59 F.Supp. 2d 1021 (N.D. CA, 1999), I argued the case on appeal before the Ninth Circuit U.S. Court of Appeal. 284 F.3d 1163 (9th Cir. 2002). Additionally, I was co-counsel on an employment discrimination class action brought on behalf of women and minorities to desegregate the San Francisco Fire Department and the appeals that followed. Davis v. City and County of San Francisco, 966 F.2d 503 (9th Cir. 1992).

4. Before joining NCYL, I served as Deputy Director of the W. Haywood Burns Institute in San Francisco for six years, working with system stakeholders to

1 analyze data and policies to reform juvenile justice systems in several jurisdictions
2 specifically focusing on reducing racial and ethnic disparities. I was also a Staff
3 Attorney and Assistant Director of the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights in 4 San Francisco where I worked on a broad range of civil rights cases.

5       5. NCYL has also assigned Hannah Benton Eidsath, an attorney who 6 works for NCYL in Madison, Wisconsin, to this case. Ms. Eidsath intends to file an 7 application to appear pro hac vice, and will file an appearance if her application is 8 granted. Ms. Eidsath has ten years of experience representing youth involved in the 9 juvenile justice system, particularly youth who have been referred to the juvenile 10 justice system for normal school-based behavior, and youth in accessing appropriate 11 educational services. Representative work includes: Ms. Eidsath was co-counsel on 12 Alicia B. et al v. Malloy et al, No. 3:16-cv-00065 (D.Conn.), a case challenging the 13 lack of adequate education provided to youth during periods of expulsion.
14 Ms. Eidsath has been co-counsel, representing individual students, classes of 15 students and organizational complainants, on multiple administrative complaints, 16 including those challenging unconstitutional practices in truancy courts, the lack of 17 appropriate educational services provided to justice-involved youth, and 18 inappropriate referral of youth to law enforcement for school-based behavior.
19 Ms. Eidsath has represented numerous juvenile justice-involved youth in accessing 20 improved educational services to mitigate their juvenile justice involvement.

21       6. NCYL has been involved in this case since March of 2018 and has 22 devoted substantial time reviewing and analyzing the facts underlying this case and 23 the applicable law.

1           7.     The NCYL is committed to vigorously litigating this case. The NCYL
2 has committed and will continue to commit all necessary resources to properly
3 represent the plaintiff class. The NCYL has also assigned multiple attorneys to this 4 case.

Attorneys for Plaintiffs

DECLARATION OF ANDREA N. FEATHERS

I, Andrea N. Feathers, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney duly admitted to practice before this Court. I am an associate with Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP (“Sheppard Mullin”). I have personal knowledge of the facts contained in this declaration, except those which are stated upon information and belief, and I could and would testify competently to those facts if called as a witness in this matter.

2. I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ unopposed Motion for Class Certification and Appointment of Class Counsel (the “Motion”).

3. In October 2015, Plaintiffs’ counsel from the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Southern California (the “ACLU”) made a Public Records Act request to the Probation Department for the County of Riverside (the “Probation Department”) for certain categories of documents related to its Youth Accountability Team Program (“YAT”). In September 2017, the County provided twelve spreadsheet documents titled “YAT PRA [Year] - Redacted.” Plaintiffs’ counsel from the ACLU combined these 12 spreadsheets into a single dataset entitled “MASTER CalData,” and saved it as an Excel spreadsheet. Plaintiffs’ counsel from ACLU sent me the correspondence to and from the Probation Department regarding the ACLU’s Public Records Act request via email, along with the twelve spreadsheets and consolidated spreadsheet. Attached hereto as Exhibit A (and also attached Plaintiffs’ Request for Judicial Notice in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Class Certification and Appointment of Class Counsel) is a true and correct copy of the first 10 pages of the MASTER CalData spreadsheet, sorted chronologically based on the “action date.” For brevity, Plaintiffs’ counsel are not attaching the full spreadsheet, which would be nearly 800 pages long if printed in this format, but Plaintiffs’ counsel can provide the sheet in hard copy or electronic format upon the Court’s request.

4. On information and belief, this spreadsheet contains data regarding children referred to and (in some cases) placed on YAT from January 2005 through December 2016. The spreadsheet does not contain the names of children or any other identifying information (such as social security numbers). On information and belief, the names were redacted by the Probation Department prior to releasing this spreadsheet. Each row includes a six digit number, referred to as the "CID," which, upon information and belief, is a unique identifier that the Probation Department assigns to children upon their initial referral to YAT. Each row appears to relate to a single child who was referred to YAT at least once. Several CID numbers appear in the MASTER CalData spreadsheet more than once, suggesting that those children were referred multiple times.

5. The spreadsheet contains columns of information relating to each referral to YAT, including the referred child's date of birth, sex, race, school, school district, and grade. The spreadsheet also contains 17 columns of information related to the child's referral and (in some cases) placement on YAT, including the "assigned date," the "arrest agency," the "most serious offense," the "action taken," the "action date," the "disposition type" and the "disposition." The dates in the "assigned date" column range from January 3, 2005 to December 30, 2016. For the purposes of this motion, I have directed staff at my office to redact all of the columns in this spreadsheet that are irrelevant to the motion, leaving only the "assigned date," the "most serious offense," the "action taken," the "action date," the "disposition type," and the "disposition date."

6. Using Microsoft Excel, I filtered the spreadsheet to include only rows in which the "most serious offense" was listed as Welfare and Institutions Code § 601 ("Section 601"). This produced 9,267 rows, signifying that, according to this spreadsheet, there were 9,267 referrals of children to YAT between January 2005 and December 2016 based on Section 601, according to this data. To determine

1 how many of these 9,267 referrals to YAT occurred during 2016 (the last complete
2 year reflected in the spreadsheet), I filtered “assigned date” to include only dates in 3 2016. This produced 859 rows, signifying that there were at least 859 referrals to 4 YAT in 2016 based on a Section 601 charge, according to this data.

5 7. To determine how many of the 9,267 YAT referrals between January
6 2005 and December 2016 based on Section 601 actually resulted in a student being 7 placed on a YAT contract, I filtered “most serious offense” to include only Section
8 601 and filtered “action taken” to include only “contract.” This produced 3,219
9 rows, signifying that between January 2005 and December 2016 at least 3,219 YAT
10 referrals resulted in students being placed on contracts based on Section 601, 11 according to this data. To determine how many of these 3,219 YAT contracts were 12 signed during 2016 (the last complete year reflected in the spreadsheet), I filtered
13 “action date” to all dates in 2016. This produced 349 rows, signifying that at least 14 349 children were placed on a YAT contract based on Section 601 in 2016, 15 according to this data.

16
17 I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to the laws of the United States
18 that the foregoing is true and correct.

19
